Homegrown interest

STAFF at SJs on Beaumont are bracing themselves for what could be their biggest Wednesday night in memory.

The so-called Hothouse roster will next week feature the original tunes of Yiante and Texas Radio and The Big Beat.

These homegrown acts recently released compact discs, with the former attracting interest from Tap Dog Dein Perry and the latter being named 'album of the week' on Brisbane radio.

Tuned-up Texans

SINCE the launch of its self-titled album, TEXAS RADIO AND THE BIG BEAT has been enjoying the sweet taste of success.

Its album has been receiving airplay in the Hunter and up the coast and the reviews, according to the band, have been 'excellent'.

The band has a few gigs lined up in Sydney and has been back in the recording studios.

'Our CD launch at the Lass O' Gowrie was a huge success,' lead vocalist and guitarist PHILLIP McINTYRE said.

'It went really well. All the shows we've done so far have gone down really well.'

The three-piece outfit is on the bill at THE HOTHOUSE at SJs on Beaumont tonight. Entry is free.
